Headline:
A return to less cold but unsettled weather this week.

Today:
A frosty, icy and in places bright start with an isolated shower possible in the north. Cloud will increase during the morning with rain for the afternoon, heavy at times, and wintry on hills. Light winds. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tonight:
Rain continuing overnight, but becoming lighter during the evening, and still wintry over the hills. Light winds. Frosty in prone spots, but milder than recent nights. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Wednesday:
A mostly cloudy day with outbreaks of rain or drizzle, wintry on hills. Some sunny spells possible later in the north. Becoming breezy later. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Windy Thursday with outbreaks of heavy rain, sleet and snow. Wind, rain and hill snow gradually easing during Friday. Largely dry Saturday but cold again with some brighter spells possible.
